The book is divided into three parts. Part I provides an overview of the international framework for insolvency law, including the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency and the European Insolvency Regulation. Part II examines the recognition of foreign insolvency proceedings and judgments in different jurisdictions, including the United States, the United Kingdom, and the European Union. Part III discusses the treatment of creditors in insolvency, including secured creditors, unsecured creditors, and employees.

The book is written by a team of leading experts in insolvency law from around the world. It is an essential resource for insolvency practitioners, judges, lawyers, and academics.
