Why read moral stories to your kids?

Moral stories are a great way to teach your kids about important life lessons. They can help kids understand the difference between right and wrong, develop empathy, and learn how to make good choices.

Reading moral stories to your kids can also help them develop their language and literacy skills. They can learn new vocabulary words, improve their comprehension skills, and develop their imagination.

How to use this book

This book can be used in a variety of ways. You can read the stories aloud to your kids, have them read the stories to you, or have them read the stories independently.

You can also use the discussion questions at the end of each story to talk to your kids about the story and its moral.
