Synopsis

In the quaint seaside town of Havenwood, a young woman named Anya is haunted by a tragic past. As a child, she witnessed the drowning of her beloved father, a renowned fisherman. The trauma of that day has left an unfillable void in her heart, and she has been unable to find solace or happiness ever since.

One stormy night, Anya stumbles upon a mysterious stranger washed ashore. The man, who introduces himself as Nehemiah, is an enigmatic figure with a haunted past of his own. As Anya nurses Nehemiah back to health, she senses a soulmate connection with him. But as they delve deeper into each other's worlds, they soon discover that their love is threatened by the secrets that bind them both.
